FAQs - THST 4320

How do I navigate the Library Website?

If you want to find all the sources potentially available, browse the website under “Find”

!Library Website Screenshot

For recommended sources for your course, check out your Course Guide.

If you want to find all the assistance/help potentially available, browse the website under “Get Assistance”

Still have questions? Ask Us
How do I find texts on Primo?

- You can search Primo from the Library’s main page.

Search Primo

Discover books, journals, journal articles, videos ...

Looking for a more advanced search?

- You can search by title
  - “Shakespeare: Invention of the Human”
  - Hint: Use quotation marks to search for an exact title

- You can search by author
  - Bloom, Harold
  - Hint: Select as author/creator to only search the author field

- You can also search by topic / subject
  - Humanism in literature

Still have questions? Ask Us
When you find an item you are interested in check to see where it is located.

Some items are online and others may be physical items. If it’s a physical item, click “where is it?” to find out where it is located. Don’t forget to write down the Call Number (for more information check out this video).

If it is at WLU or Waterloo, you can request it. You can find out how to do that in this video here.

How do I connect to Google Scholar from off-campus??
- Check out this video here.

How do I get advice on scheduling and other academic help?
- Get help on studying here.
- Get help on scheduling here.
- Make an appointment with the scheduling experts here.

How do I get help with Citation and Reference Styles?
- Get more information about Citing Your Sources in the guide.
- More citing information here.
- Get writing help here.

Still have questions? Ask Us
Not sure about a source? Where can you go for help?

- Use CRAAP to text whether or not you should use a source.
- UC: Berkeley has a great page that helps you go through the details of a website.
- Ask Us at the library.
- If you’ve used the CRAAP criteria and the UC Berkeley page and still have questions, talk to your instructor.

How do I order Articles that UoG doesn’t have?

- You can request items through Interlibrary Loan (RACER).
- Tip: Don’t search for the journal articles, fill out a BLANK REQUEST FORM.